Vol. 84, No. 42

We Hear You

I was struck by one point in the accounts of the appointments for both the (high) school district and the City. Both procedures were hampered by the fact that one member of the group was absent. You can't have a 2-2 vote when all of your elected officials are present. Why didn't they just wait to do their appointing until all five could be there?

Curious

Editor's note: In the case of the City Council, I can't say. But for Campbell Union High School trustees, they WERE all present. Vern Rutlen's resignation left that group with four members and the only way they could have avoided a 2-2 situation was if one of those four was absent.

With the picture you ran showing the sharp edges on that play jet at the park, I can see why the city's anxious to get it out of there. But what's going to be put there in its place?

Mother of Three

Editor's note: According to Administrative Aide Charlene Case, the parks and recreation commission has gone on record as favoring putting some other type of play equipment there in place of the plane but no decision has yet been made.

I have a question for your readers. Which would be better, to win $1 million in the New York state lottery or have someone place a penny on the first square of a chess board and double that amount on each of the next squares?

Just Asking

Editor's note: While it's deceptive, the latter would be much more profitable. The total for the 64 squares on a chessboard is over $457 trillion dollars, give or take a few billion. But if you want to check this answer out, better use pencil and paper. There aren't enough digits on a calculator.

I have to tell you how much easier the paper is to read now since it's bigger. I used to have trouble separating the news section from all the other parts (ads, inserts, etc.). I hope you'll leave it this way.

A Reader

I used to like the PRESS better than any other paper because the news wasn't all mixed up with the ads. Now it's all mixed up just like the Mercury and I don't like all those ads.

Unhappy

Editor's note: Those ads pay for printing the news stories and by combining the two sections we hope to give both advertisers and readers the best possible product.

I sent in my drawing for the Creature Contest and I want to know if there was more than one winner?

Sixth Grader

Editor's note: There was the first place winner plus a group of finalists who have, or will be, receiving certificates from Community Services. A few of these winning drawings are pictured in today's paper. (See Top of The News listing.) By the way, if you want to see some of the Creature entries, stop by the Campbell library this week where they're on display.

I've been taking a short cut to work recently, to avoid the machinery on Campbell ave. and I think Railway ave. near the railroad tracks is a big mess. If the City can make us citizens clean up weeds and garbage on our property, why can't they do the same with Southern Pacific?

Wondering

Editor's note: They can, and do. SP's maintenance crews spray the area long the tracks each year with a weed killer but some seeds sprout anyway (see photos). Monday Battalion Chief Sal Leonardi, Campbell's Fire Marshall, said he agrees with your description of the track area and will be contacting S.P. this week to get it cleaned up.

Over 900 show up for flu shots at Campbell clinic

WORKERS AT THE swine flu clinic in Campbell last Friday got a surprise when they showed up for work that morning.

"There were several carloads of people waiting when we arrived at 20 minutes to 7," said Irma Reese, director of the West Valley Progressive Senior Center, which hosted the local flu shot program.

Record crowds showed up that day and in the morning hours people were lined up from the Rincon ave. center all the way to Winchester blvd.

A total of 913 people were innoculated during the six hour program. "We averaged over 150 an hour," Mrs. Reese noted.

This Friday flu shots will again be given to seniors and those in the high medical risk groups at the 41 W. Rincon ave. center. Times are again 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Oldest person in line Friday was Edna Mayer of San Jose who recently celebrated her 101st birthday.

And it wasn't just local people crowding into the Campbell center either. They came from all over the county, the Director reported.

"In fact some people arrived almost at 3 p.m. that day and told us they drove 56 miles to get here," she related.

For the general population, swine flu shots will be given starting tonight, Oct. 21 at Good Samaritan Hospital.

See the Calendar section of today's PRESS for details.

New district policy

School murals get endorsement. . .of sorts

STUDENT ART work will be permitted on Campbell district school walls . . . as long as it's portable.

Last week Campbell elementary school trustees discussed a new policy that encourages wall murals and other student art work with the understanding the projects not be permanently attached to school buildings.

Practically speaking, that means murals and art work done on panels which can be attached, and later, detached from the walls.

The push for a policy statement came after former district art coordinator Marcia Wells, now a Monroe school teacher, criticized the district for painting out student art work at some schools without prior notice to students and art teachers, who created the works. In some cases, these murals were only a year old. Latest to go was the Moorpark school murals, painted by the entire student body in the spring of 1975

LAST THURSDAY the teacher told trustees the real issue was being honest with their feelings about student art work. If it's not wanted, she added, "we should say so before we allow them to do it."

And one trustee did just that. Dr. Robert King told Mrs. Wells, and the stunned audience: "I don't believe in painting walls." He termed a lot of the art work "defacing public property," adding that he hasn't noticed parents encouraging their youngsters to decorate the outside walls of their homes.

But other trustees were supportive of art in general and wall murals in particular.

In the policy statement trustees say the district, "supports, encourages and values student creativity and participation in enhancing the school environment and appearance."

Just as long as it isn't permanent.

Scout hall may bite the dust

LAST WEEK city councilmen directed staff to look into the cost of demolishing the old Scout Hall on Grant street at North Third.

This came after an executive session in which preliminary appraisals of the property was discussed.

According to City Manager Bob Stephens, reports show that the sale price of that parcel, with or without the building, are similar. (An estimated $15,000 to $20,000). That building temporarily houses the Wilderness Center, who recently got an extension to continue their use until Nov. 15.

The decision to look into demolition costs doesn't mean that building will be torn down in the next few weeks. First, the city must declare that property surplus.

If, and when, that land and building are sold proceeds must go into recreation activities, under the provisions to the original bequest deeding that property to the city.

BREWING UP an exciting program for the Campbell Public Library is Daria Trozzolillo, a White Witch. The West Valley College coed will give a talk on witchcraft, complete with demonstrations on casting good spells next Wednesday, Oct. 27, at 7:30 p.m. in the library community room. There's no admission charge. When the photo was scheduled last week, plans called for including Daria's familiar companion, her Siamese cat Seiji, along with the local woman. However, Seiji was in one of her uncooperative moods so the feline's appearance Wednesday night is in question. Perhaps Daria can whip up a mood-lifting potent for Seiji by then.

New day in the works for council

CAMPBELL city councilmen would rather meet Tuesday nights, they decided on a split-vote last Monday.

Their intention is to change the city ordinance which now sets Mondays as the official meeting date. But first they'll have to hold a public hearing and hold a first and second reading of the new ordinance.

At the end of a marathon session on Oct. 11 city officials, by a 3-2 vote, opted to seek that change. Mayor Ralph Doetsch and Councilman Dean Chamberlin were opposed.

According to City Manager Bob Stephens, the main reason for the date change is to "allow councilmen to do their homework" on items coming before them for review. Also, Stephens added, with so many holidays during the year falling on Monday, they often have to switch meeting dates anyway.

Councilman Rusty Hammer advocated trying the change for a year. If approved, the Council would meet on the second and fourth Tuesday of the month starting Jan. 11.

And they also would like to see the Planning Commission change their date to the first and third Tuesday. The Commission now meets on Thursdays. But no hearings would have to be held on that change, since it's a policy decision, not a city ordinance.

Monster kept under wraps

Campbell Creature construction underway at secret location

THE CAMPBELL Creature will be sharpening up its claws soon for the pre-Halloween battle with the Milpitas Monster on the grounds of the Campbell public library.

Last week a winner was selected from among the estimated 150 entries that came in before the Monday, Oct. 11 deadline.

A Monroe School student, Robert Bratt created the creature, which is being kept under wraps until its unveiling Oct. 30.

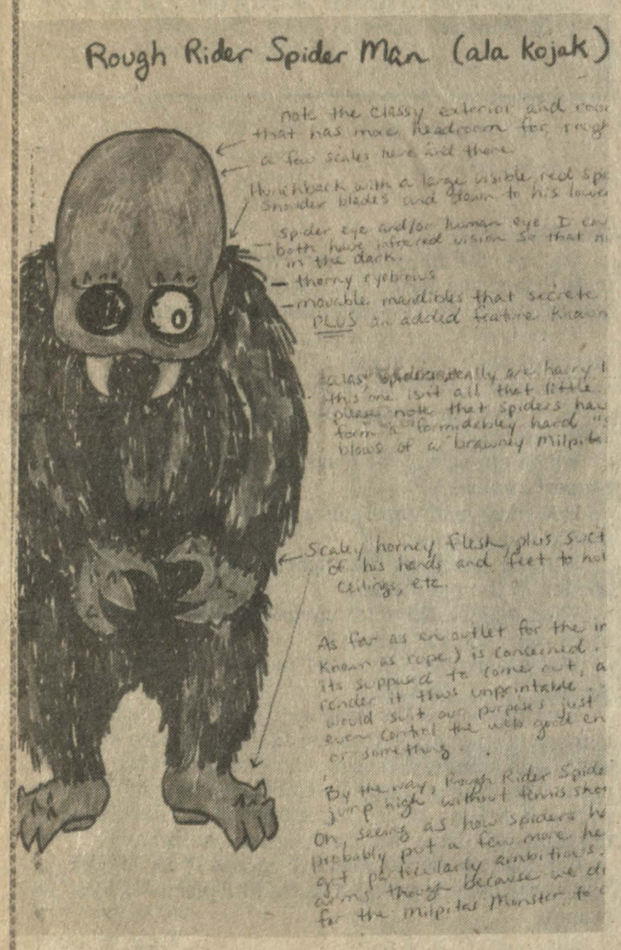
On Friday the Campbell Creature Committee (C.C.C.) met to draft plans for constructing the monster. Work, with fiberglass, paper mache, chiffon and chicken wire, began Monday night.

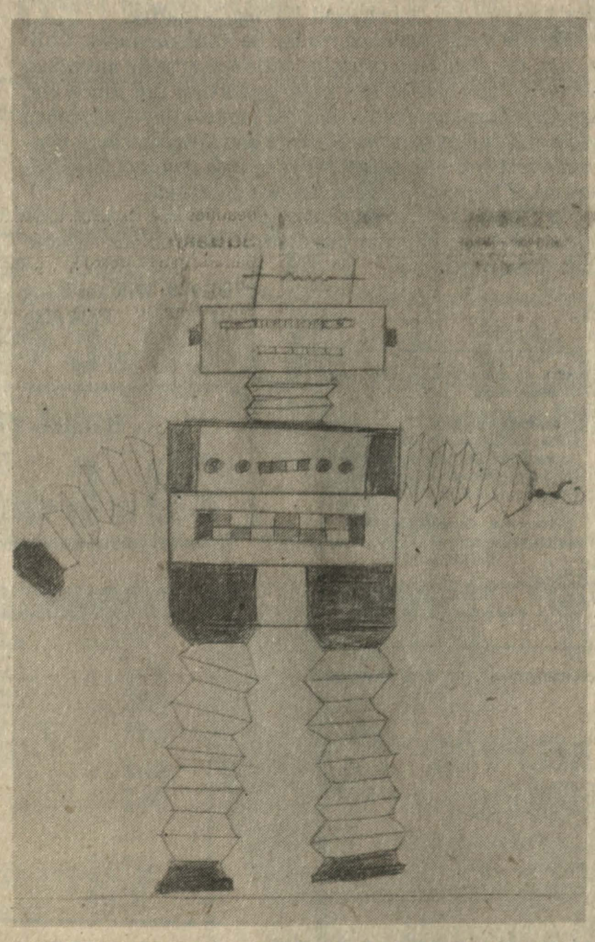
In addition to the historic meeting between the two monsters that day, a program is planned including music provided by a local rock band, other entertainment, films (including a shortened version of "The Milpitas Monster") and refreshments.

While Mark McCarroll of Community Services, chairman of the contest, refused to give details on the Creature he did explain, "It's like nothing you've ever seen before."

SPONSORING the Oct. 30 program will be the Campbell library assisted by the Friends of the Campbell Library.

Chairman is Barbara Conant and other CCC members include McCarroll, Ken Podgorsek, youth commissioner: Librarian Janet Kammemeyer, Phyliss Hofer, Gene and Betty Borden, Sally Howe, Edna Bettencourt, Marsha Wells, Kay Hofer and Pat Safford.





PICTURED today are some of the finalists in the Campbell Creature Contest. But the winning entry is being kept a secret until its official debut Oct. 30 at the library.

Nine vie for spot on youth board

NINE eligible youths have put in their application papers for a spot on the Campbell Youth Advisory Commission but more are needed before interviews can be scheduled. In addition, another half dozen persons had applied but they were either too old for the post or lived outside the city limits.

Monday night councilmen are expected to set a deadline for applying for one of the six vacant spots on the Commission.

Application forms are available at City Hall, 75 N. Central ave., or at local junior high and high schools.

TRYING OUT the new trestle steps along the Campbell Park entrance to Los Gatos Creek last week was Hank West, city field maintenance supervisor. In response to suggestions from the city's insurance carriers, the Public Works Department has completed a long list of adjustments to the creekside park, ranging from the new steps to repairing torn fencing and installing guard rails near the Camden ave. overpass. Zealous young anglers had torn out the protective fencing to gain quick access to the creek.

Campbell's not buying San Jose's EIR report

IF THE 83 ACRE Ainsley corporation development goes through as planned, traffic on busy Hamilton avenue will be strictly a stop and go affair, according to a traffic engineer's report commissioned by Campbell.

The multi-million dollar development planned for the north side of Hamilton ave., between Bascom and Leigh avenues, would include 275,000 square feet of commercial space, 250,000 square feet in office space and an estimated 1,500 dwelling units. And that project could dump an additional 27,000 cars a day on the already traffic snarled Hamilton ave.

Last week Pat Gibson, of Barton-Aschman Associates, reported that his San Jose-based firm disagrees with the environmental impact report filed with the city of San Jose. The two reports differ to the tune of 5,000 to 7,000 car trips a day, or 25 per cent.

WHILE THE development is outside the city limits, Campbell has a stake in planning for that project since part of the Bascom-Hamilton intersection is in Campbell and when completed, the development will have a major impact on Campbell streets.

Streets, like 10th graders, have their own grading system from A to F, depending on the level of service they can provide. "A" would be no congestion at all and hardly a street in the county would qualify for that. "F" is the worst rating, for stop and go traffic, and that's what will happen to Hamilton avenue if several adjustments aren't made, traffic engineers say.

The development will be done in two stages, Ainsley spokesmen say, with the commercial construction first and both office and high density housing later. Included in preliminary plans for the commercial development is a Gold Circle Junior Department Store (one is now in Mountain View), a supermarket, convenience shops and a couple of restaurants.

THE CITY LAST week sent off a list of recommendations to San Jose's Zoning Administrator William Phillips.

The list includes:

Phase I

- A right turn lane for southbound Bascom traffic onto Hamilton avenue.
- A right turn lane for southbound Leigh avenue traffic to Hamilton and for westbound Hamilton motorists to Leigh.

Phase II

- A third lane westbound on Hamilton avenue, between Leigh avenue and Bascom avenue.
- A right turn lane for eastbound Hamilton traffic to Bascom avenue.
- Construction of three lanes eastbound and westbound on Hamilton ave., from Leigh ave. to Bascom.
- A raised median strip on Hamilton, from Leigh to Bascom with an opening at the proposed signaled intersection at Hamilton avenue and April way.

Irma will be honored Wednesday

IRMA REESE, director of the West Valley Progressive Senior Center in Campbell, will be honored as the city's distinguished woman next Wednesday, Oct. 27, at the Hyatt House in Palo Alto.

As the city's nominee for the award, Mrs. Reese will join other women in the county at the awards luncheon for Distinguished Women of the Mid- Peninsula, sponsored by Hewlett/Packard and the Girl Scouts of America.

Prunes and pedestrians

Gala street opening set for Orchard City drive

HAVE YOU evern seen a prune ribbon?

If not you'll have a chance on Oct. 30 at the official dedication ceremonies for the opening of Orchard City drive (the south loop street).

Festivities, including the cutting of the prune ribbon, gets underway at 11 a.m. at the corner of Second street and the new thoroughfare.

The first official traffic on the street will be foot traffic as Mayor Ralph Doetsch and members of the City Council lead off followed by a collection of antique automobiles and trucks. After these, will come anyone interested in joining the procession (on foot). A short program will be held at the Second street location followed by a reception to be held on Orchard City drive, near the railroad tracks. Refreshments will include prune juice, coffee and prune cake . . . naturally.

MISTRESS OF Ceremonies is Jeanette Watson, chairman of the Civic Improvement Commission.

According to city spokesmen, the program and reception will be concluded early enough to allow opening of the new street to traffic no later than 1 p.m. that day.

OPEN LETTER TO H.F. WHITEHEAD

Your letter of Sept. 30, although not included on the agenda of the meeting, was read aloud at the Governing Board meeting of Oct. 7, upon my request.

Please accept my profound apology for my impromptu comments at the meeting of Sept. 23, relative to the possible condemnation of property adjacent to the campus. My remarks were out of order and not in keeping with the spirit of cooperation fostered by the Governing Board and the city of Saratoga and its residents.

The Governing Board has asked that I do convey to you, however, their concern for your broad-based, unfounded allegations relative to the expenditure of public funds. Such generalizations are in face unfounded and irresponsible.

A WORD FROM MINNESOTA
EDITOR:

We were very pleased to see the article about Carol Ballard and her experience at the Pillsbury BAKE-OFF in your September 15 edition.

Enclosed is a copy of the 27th BAKE-OFF cookbook with Mrs. Ballard's recipe appearing on page 50. We would be delighted to share it and the other 99 winning recipes with your readers.

Catherine Hanley
Consumer Relations Specialist
The Pillsbury Company
Minnesota, Minn.

Editor's note: Since we have permission, here's Carol's prizewinning entry. Cost for the main dish is about $2 the Campbell cook says, and serves 4 to 5.

CHILI DOG SUPPER

1 cup Pillsbury's Best flour
1 cup cornmeal
¼ cup sugar
4 tsp. baking powder
¾ tsp. salt
1 cup milk
¼ cup cooking oil
2 eggs
8 to 10 wieners
6 to 8 slices Kraft American processed or 1½ cups shredded cheddar cheese
2 cans (11¼ oz. each) chili beef soup
2/3 cup water

Preheat oven to 400 degrees. Grease a 12 by 8 inch baking dish or a 13 by 9 inch pan. (Lightly spoon flour into measuring cup; level off.) In a large bowl, combine first eight ingredients; blend well. Pour half of batter into greased pan. Arrange wieners over batter; top with cheese. Bake 25 to 30 minutes until golden brown. In medium sauce pan, combine soup with water; heat until bubbly. Serve hot chili sauce over each serving. (Refrigerate any leftovers).

"DOG RACING 'UNSPEAKABLY CRUEL SPORT'

EDITOR:

I am very strongly opposed to the introduction of greyhound racing and the parimutuel betting on these races.

This is an unspeakable cruel sport which uses live rabbits tied by their back legs to a device known as a Whirl gig. The rabbit is thereby coursed around the track until the dogs quite literally tear it to pieces. By this means they are trained so that ehy will chase the mechanical lure we all see at the dog races.

Norman McCasey, executive director of the National Greyhound Association, is quoted as recently as May, 1976 to the effect that purely as a matter of economics, "you use them" (the Whirlygigs).

The cruelty is unfortunately not limited to the rabbits, cats and chickens — which are also used with rabbits are scarce, but extends to the dogs themselves. Industry spokesmen have indicated that as many as 50 per cent of the dogs are killed before they reach the track.By the age of 3 to 4 years the same fate awaits even those dogs which have won purses for their owners. They must be killed because, unlike older races horses which can be retired and used for pleasure riding, these dogs have been trained to kill any small animal.

Danny Williams, Palm Beach Kennel Club, sums it up in the Sept. 11, 1975 issue of SPORTS ILLUSTRATED. "You give them away as pets and the neighbors' cats are gone, ripped to shreds just like the live rabbits those dogs are trained on."

The much touted humane safeguards of Prop. 13 are a farce because they are unenforceable and provide only misdemeanor penalties. These penalties typically bring fines much too small to serve as a deterrent to the cruelty which can pay off so well.

POSTAL SERVICE GETS A JAB . . . OR TWO
EDITOR:

It would help the post office deficit if they would stop subsidizing religious organizations by letting them have only two cent mailing privileges. It takes just as much time to process this type as it does a first class letter.

William Sullivan

FORMER POSTMASTER IS CRITICAL
EDITOR:

The United States Postal Service was made a quasi-government corporation in 1970. The law which established this corporation gave it authority to unionize the same as private industry, with one exception — the right to strike.

The National Labor Agreement, which started immediately with the corporate structure, has provisions which are above and beyond anything in the private sector, such as no-layoffs. Also, when labor disagrees with management decisions, management cannot act. The decisions must go to arbitration, etc.

The Postal Service is responsible to no one for its expenditures. Any deficit must be paid by the taxpayers.

The salary structures which the U.S. Postal Service set for itself for management and labor have a ceiling of $63,000. A large number of management officers receive salaries which far exceed those of Senators and Congressmen. The Post Office labor force receives salaries which far exceed those for government employees. Prior to the formation of the postal corporation, these were comparable.

Overstaffing and idle hours in the Postal Service is now a way of life. The law requires eight hours work for eight hours pay in other agencies.

The union contract which the Postal Service negotiates with itself supersedes the law of our land. The financial problems in the Postal Service have been created because of this labor agreement.

Excessive increase in postage has caused a decrease in mail volumne. Many of the major users are now finding alternate means in lieu of paying this price. The no-layoff provision in the contract leaves a fixed number work force with a decrease in mail volumne.

Postal employees receive high pay for doing nothing. Unless the attrition rate equals the workload decreases, the imbalance between the manhours and the workload will continue. The no-layoff clause does not permit management to reduce the work force to correct the imbalance.

An effective work measurement system has been eliminated and each office is permitted to set its own work standards which support this type of imbalance. Efficiency and economy in the operation of the Postal Service under this labor agreement are impossible.

I invite everyone interested in an efficient U.S. Postal Service to write their Congressman and make their views known.

Carlton G. Beall, former Postmaster, Washington, D.C.

CONDENSED VIEW OF OTHER DOG RACING FOE

EDITOR:

In the face of back-breaking taxes borne by a majority of Californians today, our state is faced with yet another option which will certainly send taxes higher to increase this burden; the Greyhound Racing Initiative.

Should parimutuel dog racing be implemented in California, the State and counties will face greatly increased necessity and cost of law enforcement in the police and sheriff's departments, in animal control agencies, more state and county humane officers and veterinarians, traffic control and even social services as a result of financial and other losses to families due to dog betting.

As Santa Clara County taxpayers, we are against this initiative that will bring far more trouble to our budgets than it is worth.

Dr. and Mrs. J. William Bace
Palo Alto

EDITOR:

On Nov. 2 California voters will decide whether the tragic, so-called sport, Dog Racing, will be allowed to pursue its evil ways with California's blessings.

There is still time, however, for voters to discover whether they know the answers to these questions:

Who will own the track in your area?

What local government body will supervise the track operation?

Which effect will the track have on local residential property values?

How many additional police will be required to control traffic and crowds?

Will the gambling atmosphere adversely affect any portion of the population?

What will be the total environmental impact of the track upon the community?

Why has the issue of tracks been turned down in other states?

Investigation of the foregoing questions reveals there is more to dog racing than the up-front picture of pretty dogs, with numbers, chasing a mechanical rabbit, with a name like "Fluffy" around a track. The true story of dog racing is written behind the scenes where dedication to the almighty dollar sanctions, inhumane behavior.

Coming together as voters to oppose Prop. 13, and defeat it, will put dog racing in its rightful place — Out of the running.

Editor's Notebook

Are you a 'Non-Mech'?

By PAT SAFFORD

IF YOU repeatedly try to open your bottle caps in the coke machine coin return slot . . . and create a ribbon maze every time you change your typewriter ribbon . . . it's possible you're a genuine "Non-Mech."

Please note: Those able to place film in an Instamatic camera on the first try definitely don't quality.

Non-Mech is short for "not mechanically minded," that phrase used by people usually to account for not doing something they should have. Most families have at least one.

And what it really boils down to is people who just don't like to fiddle with things. Like fuse boxes, replacing batteries in flashlights or tightening the loose screw in the screen door.

Non-Mechs paint large landscapes rather than geometric patterns. They stop to admire the flowers along the way . . . not to straighten the loose picket in the fence. Oh, and they're not much for playing with Legos or building toothpick towers.

THIS LOVABLE creature, the Non-Mech, expects the world to function on its own without further attention. No stops to adjust the fine tuning. The set either works or you listen to something else. A car either runs or it's "wrecked." There's no in-between. No adjusting the idle or checking the anti-freeze.

Living with a Non-Mech can be a real chore. After all, someone has to replace the wornout screens and take care of squeaky doors.

But a Non-Mech can also be a delight to behold . . . and if you're not up too close you won't see the broken glasses frame or the knotted shoelaces.

NON-MECHS throw great parties . . . if you're not bothered by the missing light bulbs in the hallway and porch.

They also make fine friends, great companions and good natured spouses . . . Just don't ask them to fix the leaky faucet.

A SHORT AND SWEET LETTER

Last week we received a letter from the governor's office in Sacramento which has to be a record for brevity.

Inside was a one page letterhead, complete with the state seal and Brown's heading. But nothing else.

The letter was blank save for the imprinted message at the bottom which said, "Whales, Forests, People: We need Each Other . . . 100 per cent recycled paper."

Maybe that was the message.

Take an honest look around you, Gemini

Oct. 23 — Oct. 29, 1976

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Struggle ahead is for big stakes. You tend to be more than just a little pugnacious, Ari, so watch it. Observe Marquis of Queensbury Rules and you stand good chance of winning. Fight dirty and you get it . . . right in the ol' chops!

TAURUS (April20-May 20): Problem solving highlighted. There is a simple way and a complex way to attack every situation, Taurus, so why do you usually choose the latter? Learn to conserve your energies and recycle your emotions. No need to fell a forest for a toothpick.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): You see certain situation as you'd like it to be, rather than as it truly is. Take off your Foster Grants and view life honestly in the light of the blazing October sun. After you recover from initial shock, you wind up becoming a Gem for all seasons.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): The many clocks which make you tick may seem to be out of calibration first three days. However, as week draws to a close, energy returns and you want to throw caution aside and REALLY live. Go ahead. Shoot the works.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Circumspect behavior key to success concerning money matter. You want to outmaneuver adversary? O.K., then mind Olga and stop blathering. You should always tell the truth, Leo, but ye gods! Do you always have to be TELLING it?

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): First: Slow down. Second: Relax. Journey on which you have embarked has many a detour, and you'll encounter a great deal of resistance along the way. But, ye SHALL overcome. For it is written, Virgo, not just in this column, but in the stars.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Hope is your life line, Libra, so hang on! After all, who knows what lies beyond the next seemingly insurmountable pile of trash? Olga knows . . . and it's encouraging news. Secret fantasy comes face-to-face with reality.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Happy Birthday, Scorp! You are happiest when on the prowl, stalking the local scene in search of adventure. You are clever, cunning and totally captivating. Those who know (and they are legion!) refer to you as The Leonardo of Love. March and August are significant months in year ahead. Expert chef caters to your unorthodox tastes. Bon Appetit.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): You have something to say about absolutely everything, Saj. Often when attempting to be profound, however, you wind up being merely pretentious. Daily associate is trying desperately to get word in edgewise. Shut up and listen. Week ends on pensive note.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Loved one's behavior may have you completely flummoxed. Play waiting game. This week, Cap, time and Olga are your two best friends. Week trails to quiet close. (Calm perhaps, before proverbial storm?)

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Career and personal needs vie for your time, energy and capital. Don't thrash about mindlessly. Take one day at a time and you wind up holding winning hand. But then, Aquari, you usually do.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): You have interesting song to sing, Pisces my pet, so warble away. Why keep your talent confined to the shower? Have faith in yourself. Remember 'The Little Engine That Could?' Well, you are the little fish that CAN. So there!

The new moderately priced lunch menu at the FONDU POT in Campbell features sandwiches for only $2 & they're man sized — the Beef Eater (thinly sliced beef on sourdough bread), the Neptune (seafood salad on toasted English muffin coated with melted cheddar cheese), the Alpine, the Saratoga, & the Santa Cruz. Also, during October, you'll receive a complimentary glass of house wine with their combination lunch, which incls. soup & salad or soup & sandwich. Of course, you can still order one of Chef Pfammatter's gourmet fondues for lunch or dinner.

The tranquil creek setting at the ECHO in Los Altos is so relaxing for enjoying one of John Bikakis' fine dinners . . . Chef Ron Eller prepares delicious food & you can always depend on it to please yourself, the whole family, & any guest you wish to impress. Lillian Smithline performs grandly on the organ in the lounge — a fun place, so do stop by.

If you're interested in dining at MALONEY'S in Portola Valley, try the middle of the week, since weekends are very busy; however, it's well worth the pleasant drive in the country to enjoy one of their fine dinners. Some of their entrees are Hawaiian influenced since many of their chef's have been trained in their Waikiki restaurants — Pieces of Eight & Buzz's Steak & Lobster. My favorite Teriyaki Ribs Hawaii & Island Mahi Mahi Almandine are excellent!

Last Mon. night I stopped by VINTAGE '76 where there was a big gang watching the football game in the lounge . . . Nick Kaplanis & his partner, Steve Smith, serve a spec. football dinner from 5-9 p.m. . . BBQ Prime Rib Bones, Cone Pone Chili, or Polish Sausage w/Sauerkraut, all with homemade potatoes & believe me, if you haven't tried some of Nick Kaplanis' fine cuisine you're in for a treat. The VINTAGE '76 serves lunch & dinner & a marvelous brunch.

Here's some new entertainment at the PIONEER SALOON in Wdsd., owner Dick Donnelley has booked "WILD COUNTRY" every Wed. & Thurs. nites while the popular Brownsville Lady & L.D. Strailey continue to wow the crowds every Fri., Sat., & Sun. in the Old West atmosphere of this pub. Cocktail hour 4 to 6 p.m. w/hors d'oeuvres starts the evening out in fine style & you'll want to linger on as long as possible.

Oct. 23rd is the great costume party at PEZZELLA'S VILLA NAPOLI featuring "Marcie" with The Royals & everything will be more festive than usual! PEZZELLA'S will also serve lunch in the lounge in front of the TV during the World Series. The new lunch specialties incl. Chicken Livers w/soup or salad $3.25 on Tues. & Wed. There's a spec. every day at PEZZELLA'S VILLA NAPOLI. So mark Oct. 23rd on your calendars of events & come to PEZZELLA'S VILLA NAPOLI!

A very charming lady from Saratoga called to report a very successful dining event at the LAUNDRY WORKS in San Jose, where she had entertained a group of 6. This was particularly memorable to them since they were very historically minded & the decor of this restaurant (carved out of a 100 yr. old laundry) was indeed dazzling. They loved their dinner & went to the lounge to dance to the music of "BLISS" who entertain in Las Vegas style.

I enjoy browsing thru the questionnaires that patrons of SIRLOIN & BREW UNLIMITED fill out after dinner: one customer at the Saratoga location wrote: "Much better than dining at home"; another wrote, "Heck of a good deal for $5 a head". I see stacks of enthusiastic responses like these which praise the unlimited wine, beer or sangria, plus all the salad you can eat that go w/their steak dinners. My readers can choose from locations in Saratoga, Fremont, Belmont, or on Columbus Ave., SF, or at Jack London Square, Oakland.

Teacher of the year

Perking them up at Prospect is a job for 'super teach'

By PAT SAFFORD

THERE'S ONE TEACHER in the Campbell high school district who'll never have a problem with unruly students. That's Bonnie Phelps, Prospect high school instructor recently named Teacher of the Year by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

"She's so vivacious," Principal Verdun Romer reports, "that she never has a discipline problem in the classroom. There's so much to do."

The pert 29-year-old Willow Glen resident started at Prospect as an intern in 1969 and stayed on as a regular classroom teacher. This year her teaching load includes world literature, psychology, freshman English and the mentally gifted minor program.

SO HOW DO YOU keep students awake in a literature class? "I have an enthusiasm for literature and that's very important," Bonnie explained last week. And part of the required reading for her students is "Siddhartha," a novel published in 1947 that deals with an individual's search for meaning.

"The author's whole point is the search that goes on and there isn't a kid walking around on campus that can't relate to that," the teaching dynamo declares.

Bonnie's popularity with her peers, students and supervisors is assured (the teaching staff at Prospect nominated her for the Teacher award) but it hasn't all been easy. For one thing she looks much younger than her 29 years.

"The first year I was here a faculty member thought I was a student and asked me to leave the library," she laughed. And just last week one student came up to her in the hall to remark, "Say, I didn't know you were a teacher."

HER PROFESSIONAL credentials include a degree from San Jose state university, where she majored in speech communication, and she's currently enrolled in the master's program in counseling-psychology at Santa Clara University.

She and her husband Bob, who's in personnel work, are co-authors of "A Personal Growth Inventory," now used in the San Jose unified school district. A former student, Bill Barmettler, did the illustrations.

Bonnie sees some real changes in her students over the last few years.

"Kids have really come back to being more enthusiastic towards learning," she asserts. In the past the unsettled mood of the country, including the Vietnam conflict, is what turned off many kids of many of the trappings of our society, including education.

FOR THE PROSPECT teacher the main purpose in many of her classes is to get across the importance of communication.

"The key issue is communication," she says, "If you can't communicate, there's absolutely no where you can go in today's world."

SHOWN WITH her psychology class is Bonnie Phelps, recently named Teacher of the Year in the Campbell high school district. While her first love is teaching, Bonnie also loves to travel, weave, work with ceramics, cook and read. Her reading tastes lean towards historical fiction and non-fiction. "Reading about things that have happened."

HANDING OUT test papers can even be made interesting, if the teacher is turned on to her students and learning. And Prospect's Bonnie Phelps is just that. "She makes everything so interesting," Principal Verdun Romer declares, "that there's no boredom and no discipline problems."

Taste Science Succeeds.

'Enriched Flavor'™ breakthrough brings unprecedented taste to low tar smoking.

By "cracking" cigarette smoke down into separate ingredients, researchers at Philip Morris discovered very special "key" flavor units that deliver taste way out of proportion to tar.

The discovery is called 'Enriched Flavor.'

The cigarette packed with 'Enriched Flavor' tobacco is MERIT. At 9 mg., one of the lowest tar levels in smoking today.

Yet, MERIT actually packs the taste of cigarettes having more tar.

Up to 60% more tar.

If you smoke, you'll be interested.

MERIT and MERIT MENTHOL

Tests Verify Taste

9 mg. tar MERIT was taste-tested against current leading low tar cigarettes ranging from 11 mg. to 15 mg. tar.

Thousands of smokers were tested. The majority reported that even if the cigarette tested had up to 60% more tar than MERIT, MERIT delivered as much—or more—taste.

You've been smoking "low tar, good taste" claims long enough.

Now smoke the cigarette.

CAMPBELL JUNIOR HIGH HIT

Whoever broke into three rooms at Campbell junior high last Sunday must be planning a big party.

Total damages, including theft losses, were estimated at over $900 including foodstuff stolen from the student store.

Reported missing Monday were 15 dozen ice cream bars, six cases of soft drinks, $50 in candy and pencils, paper and other supplies valued at $25. All were owned by the junior high student body.

In making entry, reports Principal Louie Albanese, the culprits damaged two large doors and the large freezer beyond repair.

OFFICE EQUIPMENT BURNED

When officials of the Southwestern Life Insurance company on E. Sunnyoaks ave. reported the theft of over $1,000 worth of office equipment and supplies last week, Campbell police didn't have to look very far to find them.

Reported stolen was an adding machine, telephone answering device, two electric typewriters, a calculator and copy machine door knobs, two brief cases and even the makings for the office coffee machine.

Campbell fire fighters responded to a reported grass fire at 155 E. Sunnyoaks a short time later and all stolen items, except one typewriter, were destroyed in the blaze.

TRANSIT BUS IN ACCIDENT

A non-injury accident was reported to Campbell police last week involving a transit bus and an automobile in the parking lot of the PruneYard shopping center.

ALTO SAX MISSING

If you should run across a black case, with the white initials "M.A." on it, a certain high school student would like to know. It contains his alto saxophone, valued at $1,200.

Or more properly the instrument belongs to the Menlo Atherton high school band.

The 15 year old youth reported he was leaving a residence on N. Third st. last Thursday where he takes music lessons. He set his music case on the sidewalk as he loaded other things into his car and then drove off leaving the case behind. When he drove back to find the instrument, about three minutes later, it was gone.

Anyone with information should contact Campbell police.

KEEPING GUNS OUT OF THE ARGUMENT

Campbell police have had several calls of disturbances at one local home so when they received a report about a collection of guns at the house they investigated.

Taken to the station for safekeeping last week were 28 guns. Just in case.

CHURCH BURGLARIZED

The Church of Christ, 1075 W. Campbell ave., was reportedly broken into last week and the theft loss was set at $610.

Missing from the pastor's office was an assortment of camera equipment.

PARAMEDIC RUNS

Campbell paramedics were kept busy last week as they answered several accident calls, heart attacks, an attempted suicide and a 2-year-old who swallowed a dime.

A 20-year-old woman was treated for slashed wrists and arms and a drug overdose before being taken to Good Samaritan Hospital where she is recovering.

She reportedly had been released from Valley Medical Center that same day for threatening suicide.

A 36-year-old woman was treated for serious injuries suffered when she was struck by a car at the corner of Winchester and Williamsburg drive while crossing the street.

DOGS PICKED UP

Two starving dogs were picked up by animal control officers from a North Central avenue home recently after neighbors reported the dogs hadn't been fed or given water for days.

According to reports, their owner had been hospitalized for some time and the person who was supposed to be feeding the pets hadn't been by the home for 3 or 4 days.

MORE PARK DAMAGE

Workmen at John D. Morgan park recently reported three light poles had been broken off.

Total damage was estimated at $150.

NURSERY SCHOOL VANDALIZED

Carousel Campus on Fewtrell drive, recently reported over $200 in damages from vandals.

Included in the report were bushes pulled out, play equipment and a water fountain damaged and paint smeared on the outside walls.

UNFORTUNATE ACCIDENT

The man involved in an accident earlier this month on the northbound off-ramp at Highway 17 wasn't injured in the mishap but he is in jail.

He reportedly struck the power pole and when police arrived the man could not produce any identification. After a short investigation the man was booked into county jail and the immigration officials notified.

ONE LESS IN SWIM CLASS LAST THURSDAY

Things were slow around the Campbell Police Department last Thursday afternoon when three Del Mar high school girls came in and stood quietly at the reception desk.

When the clerk came up to ask if she could help, the middle girl leaned over the counter and whispered; "Does anyone here know how to take off handcuffs?" With that she held up her shackled hands.

Seems she tried to unlock them herself and the key broke off. The local P.D. key didn't work either so Campbell paramedics came over with bolt cutters and sawed them off.

As she was leaving the embarrassed girl called back, "Well at least I got out of swimming class."

Warriors nip Cougars with late score

DON STAGNARO may have aged 15 years last Friday afternoon. But the Westmont high head football coach must have felt it was all worth while when his Warriors survived a thrilling 20-19 victory over the Camden Cougars.

"It was a tough game all the way around," sighed Stagnaro, who watched his club score in the final minute of the game only to watch Camden score and have a shot at winning the game with no time remaining.

Trailing 13-12 with less than a minute to go in the game, Westmont quarterback Randy Scacutto engineered a 75 yard drive that ended with a 16 yard touchdown pass to Eric Stark.

Stark then tallied what proved to be the winning points of the game when he ran for a two point conversion.

A big play in the Warrior march, that concluded with only 25 seconds remaining in the game, was a 40 yard bomb from Scacutto to Craig Scadden.

But the game wasn't over just yet. Camden, with just four seconds left on the clock, pulled off a miracle when quarterback Jeff Hill connected with Jim Barnett for a 48 yard touchdown as time expired.

Camden then had a chance to win the game but Hill's two point conversion pass fell incomplete to allow Westmont to sneak away with the victory.

"WE PLAYED pretty well but we made too many mistakes," said Stagnaro. "Our offense moved well at times but I thought we could have scored a couple of more times."

As it turned out, the Warriors scored just enough.

Westmont built a 12 point first half lead with solo touchdowns in the first and second quarters.

Matt Wenzel broke a scoreless game open in the first period when he returned an interception 34 yards for a touchdown. The extra point kick failed.

In the second quarter, Scacutto went deep to his favorite receiver, Rocky Pena, and the result was a 66 yard touchdown as time ran out in the first half. The two point conversion pass failed.

Scacutto finished the day seven for 18 through the air for 187 yards and two touchdowns. He was intercepted once.

Pena, an all-league receiver last year, nabbed three passes for 106 yards. Stark also caught three passes, picking up 41 yards.

Stark, however, was more valuable to the Warriors in the backfield. The Westmont workhorse carried the ball 24 times for 144 yards.

"He had an outstanding day," praised Stagnaro.

DEFENSIVELY, the Warriors performed brilliantly for three quarters, not allowing Camden to score. But the Cougars, behind their fine quarterback Hill, exploded for all 19 of their points in the final 12 minutes of play.

The linebacking corps of Alan Nobriga, Pat Riley and Wenzel spearheaded the Warrior defense. Riley sacked Hill twice.

Tackle Bob Cooney and nose guard Matt Heath also played well for the Warriors.

Westmont, which raised its record to 2-1 to remain a game off the pace of league leading Prospect, travels to Campbell Friday for a 3:30 p.m. test with the hard luck Buccaneers.

"They'll be very tough, just like everyone else is in this league," said the Warriors' boss.

Dons fall in non-loop test

Strong 2nd half not enough for Del Mar

FOR THE FINAL two quarters of their non-league football game with Monta Vista last Thursday, the Del Mar Dons played as well as they have all season. But unfortunately for the gold and black, football games are four quarters long.

The Dons got off to a rocky start in the 33-13 loss to the Matadors, falling behind by as much as 20-0. Del Mar was forced to play catch-up football in the second half because of Monta Vista's comfortable lead. And surprisingly enough for the Matadors, the Dons almost caught up!

Del Mar threw a real scare into the Matadors with a pair of touchdowns early in the fourth period to cut the MV lead to 20-13.

The Dons quickly got the ball back and drove it right down the throats of the Matador defense. Del Mar drove to a first and goal on the one but on second down fumbled the ball away on the two inch line.

Monta Vista came back to score two touchdowns late in the game for insurance to clinch the victory.

"In the second half we did a lot of things better than we have all year," said Don Coach Jim Clifton. "I was very pleased with the way we played in the second half."

"We had a chance to do something but we couldn't," admitted Clifton. "We made some mistakes when we were forced to play catch-up football."

IT WAS THE poor start that killed Del Mar's hopes for victory. The Dons gave up 98 yards and a touchdown to MV in the first period and allowed another Matador TD in the second.

"But in the second period we started to come alive, at least defensively," said Clifton. Monta Vista rushed for 32 yards in the second but the Dons sacked MV for just as many yards.

Del Mar dominated the football in the third period but it was Monta Vista who picked up the touchdown and went out to a 20-0 lead.

But in the early stages of the fourth the Dons rallied. A pair of Tom Harris passes to Sig Knapstad set up a seven yard touchdown run by Bob Onetto. Yogi Taylor's extra point kick cut the gap to 20-7.

It didn't take Del Mar long to get the ball back again. The Dons put together an 82 yard drive with Onetto carrying most of the load before Dave Hernandez ran it over from the three to make it 20-13.

And the Dons didn't quit. They took over on the MV 40 and drove again. Del Mar took the ball to the one but fumbled it away to kill its hopes for a tie.

Monta Vista drove for a touchdown to up the score to 27-13.

Del Mar got the ball back in poor field position after the kick and, forced to put the ball in the sky, had a toss intercepted and returned for a TD in the final minute.

The touchdown before had all but wrapped up the win for Monta Vista and the final score was all the insurance MV needed.

"We did have some individuals play super football in the game, though, both offensively and defensively," said Clifton.

CLIFTON PRAISED the work of Pete Angelidakis, Larry Oreglia, Ernie Watkins and Blake Fearnside defensively in the contest and was pleased with the hard running of Onetto and the blocking of Hernendez offensively.

Onetto finsihed the game with 54 yards on 14 carries, most of his yardage coming in the second half.

Harris completed five of 17 passes for 65 yards, hitting Knapstad three times for 57 yards and Hernendez and George Rodriguez once each.

"The offensive line improved from one half to the other," added the coach. "They played decent football in the second half."

Watkins picked off a pass for the Dons from his linebacker spot and Fearnside sacked the MV quarterback twice. Oreglia and Dave Heckert each sacked the Matador signal-caller once.

The Dons, 1-2-1 on the season and 0-1-1 in West Valley Athletic League play, will return to the league turf this week to meet the winless Leigh Longhorns.

"Leigh doesn't look all that bad," said Clifton. "They've got a couple of good backs. Their quarterback isn't bad and they have a couple of good receivers."

"We've got to iron out our mistakes and get our offense going," admitted Clifton. "Our defense isn't playing all that bad right now."

The Dons will entertain Leigh for a 3:30 p.m. game Friday.

Cunninghan's hot bat sparks Del Mar

AS COACH OF the Del Mar Rainbows, Gary Cunningham figures he must set an example for his players to follow. And what an example he has set!

Hitting in all of Del Mar's games so far, Cunningham will take an incredible .714 batting average into the Rainbows' 3 p.m. contest with Redwood today (Wednesday) at PAL Stadium.

Getting at least two hits in every league game so far, Cunningham has stroked 15 hits in his first 21 at bats.

The Rainbow player-manager collected five hits last Sunday to lead his club to a double-header split with the league-leading Salinas Packers.

Salinas, which took an unbeaten Semi-Pro Winter League record into last Sunday's game, jumped out to a 6-0 lead at the end of two innings in the first game. But Del Mar came battling back to capture a 9-6 decision as pitcher Jeff Blobaum settled down to shut-out the Packers on one hit over the final five innings.

Blobaum raised his record to 3-1 with the win while his earned run average lifted slightly to 0.83 in 25 innings of work.

Clutch hitting Tom Bell, whose .352 batting average is second on the club to Cunningham, keyed the comeback with a three run double in the third inning to highlight a five run explosion. Bell's two bagger came on a two strike pitch.

CUNNINGHAM led the winners at the plate with a trio of hits while Eric Richesin, Jim Dorr and Mike Rusconi chipped in with two hits apiece. Craig Richesin, Tom Medica and Bell added one hit each. The Richesin brothers are the only other players above the .300 mark for Del Mar, Eric batting .346 and Craig .312.

Salinas bounced back in the nightcap to claim a 10-6 win. Gene Baugher, a starting pitcher at Hartnell junior college, chalked up the win but struck out only six Rainbow batters after whiffing 15 in each of his two previous outings.

C. Richesin and Cunningham led the Rainbow effort at the plate with two hits each while Blobaum, E. Richesin, Karl Martin and Dan McKay contributed one apiece.

The Rainbows also claimed a 2-1, 10 inning victory over the San Jose State University junior varsity team last Wednesday at PAL Stadium behind the combined seven-hit pitching of Blobaum and Bell.

E. Richesin sparked the Rainbows with two hits and several defensive gems at shortstop. Bell, Blobaum, Martin and Cunningham had one hit each.

Del Mar is at home Sunday for a twin-bill with the Westside A's. Game times are 11 a.m. and 1 p.m.

Campbell title chances slowly slipping away

OPTIMISM surrounded the Campbell Buccaneers when they began working out for the start of the 1976 football season. After all, only last year the Bucs had made a strong bid to capture the West Valley Athletic League championship. And this year, with Saratoga gone to another league, Campbell seemed to have as good a chance of taking the league crown as anyone.

But that was prior to the start of the season. Since then the Bucs have met with disappointment after disappointment, the latest being last week's humbling 27-6 loss to Branham.

The defeat lowered Campbell's WVAL record to 0-2 and its overall record to 1-3. The Bucs currently share the West Valley League cellar with the Leigh Longhorns, who have yet to win a game all year long.

Campbell will attempt to post its first league win this season when it plays host to the Westmont Warriors (2-1) Friday afternoon at 3:30 p.m.

The Bucs were never in last week's game with the undefeated Bruins, falling behind 20-0 by halftime and down 27-0 heading in the final period of play.

Campbell broke up Branham's bid for a shut-out in the waning minutes of the game when Fred Heidler capped the Bucs' lone scoring drive of the day with a one yard paydirt plunge.

CAMPBELL'S offense, as it has been for most of the season, was ineffective against the Bruins, managing only 78 net yards.

Quarterback Rick Fournier completed five of 15 passes to account for 60 of Campbell's yards. Dave Burns, Ron Perry, Dave Wagner, Tom Farley and Heidler caught one pass apiece.

Burns led the meager Buc ground game with just a dozen yards in four carries.

Branham, meanwhile, was rolling up 221 total yards of offense against the Bucs' normally stern defense.

Linebacker Mike Rosewicz turned in a stellar performance, leading the club in fumbles and returning a Branham fumble 60 yards before being tackled eight yards short of a touchdown.

Barrigan posts strong efforts

IN JUST A MATTER of three days, Campbell's Javier Barrigan posted a pair of impressive cross country efforts against some of the best runners the area has to offer.

Barrigan romped to an individual second at the Coyote Park Center meet on Thursday and came back to claim a fourth at the Del Mar Invitational on Saturday.

The Buccaneer running star covered the 2.85 mile course at Coyote Park in 15:01 to finish second to Stan Ross of Serra, first at 14:43. Barrigan ran alone to second, the third placer sprinting home 22 seconds later.

At Del Mar Barrigan rambled over the 2.18 mile course to a fourth place.

In regular season West Valley Athletic League meets last week, Del Mar handled Campbell 20-41 despite a strong individual performance by Barrigan.

Barrigan romped to first in the meet clocked at 15:01. But that was the lone bright point of the meet for the Bucs. Dave Keenan finished second, and first for Del Mar, at 15:53 to lead a flock of Dons to the tape.

Del Mar posted a pair of wins over Prospect and Branham in a double-dual meet. Keenan finished first on the 2.2 mile course at 11:02 to lead the Dons to a 24-32 win over Prospect and a 21-38 victory over Branham.

Blackford runners picked up the top two spots against Westmont but the Warriors romped to a 25-34 win over the Braves. Gerald McPeak finished first for the Warriors on the 2.4 mile course at 12:36.

Jags fall in ratings, Vikings taking lumps

WHAT A DIFFERENCE a day makes, or — as far as the San Jose City College football team is concerned — what a difference a week makes.

In just a matter of a week the Jaguars dropped 14 spots in the California top 20 junior college football poll after suffering a 25-10 setback at the hands of the City College of San Francisco.

The Jags went into the game with a perfect 3-0 season record with wins over Shasta, Foothill and Los Medanos. But the loss to CCSF dropped SJCC's record to 3-1 and dropped the Jags to 17th in the state rankings.

San Jose was to meet San Mateo last Saturday in a key GGC game. The Bulldogs took a 5-0 record into the game and were ranked second in the state.

The Purple gang will take on De Anza College Friday in a 7:30 p.m. game at Foothill before meeting West Valley the following week in a Saturday night game at SJCC.

The Vikings have been taking their lumps thus far in the 1976 season. West Valley lost to Laney 39-34 last Friday and will try to shake their losing ways Saturday at 7:30 p.m. against Foothill on the Los Gatos high school field.

The Vikes opened with a win over Butte but have lost to Ventura, Chabot, Diablo Valley and Laney since posting that victory.

Chasey Wingard and Tom Sheppard have been the leaders offensively on the year for San Jose City.

Wingard went into Saturday's game as the sixth leading ground gainer in the GGC with 269 yards on 67 carries.

Sheppard is the club's leading scorer on the season with five touchdowns for 30 points. The former Silver Creek high school star also handles the Jag punting chores and has booted the football 19 times for a 33.8 average.

Joe Thomas is a defensive leaders for the Jags. Thomas has picked off three passes on the year, returning them for 48 yards.

Dave Painter (Branham) is the West Valley scoring leader on the year. Going into the game with Laney Painter had scored four touchdowns for 24 points.

Rich Eagle is the second leading kick scorer in the GGC. The Viking has drilled six of seven field goals and six extra points 24 for points.

Marty King (Bellarmine) handles the Viking punting chores and ranks third in GGC with a 36.8 per kick average. King has booted the ball eight times.

Instant replay in prep circuit for predictors

INSTANT REPLAYS are generally limited to Sunday afternoon pro football on television, but the instant replay has now hit the high school level too — at least for the local prep football predictors.

The football forecasters came up with an instant replay performance last week. That's good in the Santa Teresa Athletic League, but not so hot in the West Valley Athletic League.

The seers were 4-0 in the STAL in picking football winners last week, just as they were the week before. The second perfect week in a row jumped the predictor's season record to an impressive 22-8, good for a .733 average.

But over in the WVAL the predictors were stuck with a 3-2 mark, again for the second straight week. The seers are just keeping their heads above water in the West Valley loop, good for a 15-9 mark and a .625 average.

We're hoping for better things this week in the WVAL and we look to keep up the good work in the STAL in an effort for our first 9-0 week.

In the STAL, Pioneer hosts Leland in a 3 p.m. game Friday and will fall by 16 to the Chargers and Willow Glen entertains San Jose at the same time and will win by three.

That night, Gunderson will fall by three in an 8 p.m. game at Gilroy and Lincoln will lose by three at 8 p.m. at Live Oak.

Over in the WVAL, Westmont will knock off Campbell by four on the Buc field, Del Mar will host Leigh and win by three and Blackford will travel to Prospect to hand the Panthers their first loss of the year by two points. All three games are set for 3:30 p.m. starts.

Branham travels to Los Gatos for an 8 p.m. game and will claim a six point win and Camden heads to Carmel for non-league action and will bring home a six point win.

B-2 S-3 spikers record miraculous comeback win

IN A COMEBACK that would make even the Oakland Raiders stand up and take notice, the B-2 S-3 volleyball team posted a miraculous, near impossible victory over Collosal Combine in Campbell adult volleyball league play.

B-2 S-3 came back from a 14-0 deficit to nail a 16-14 victory over Collosal in the Monday night league.

B-2 S-3 had won the first game of the match 15-11 but Parker Miller of Collosal opened the second game by serving 14 straight points to put his team in front 14-0.

But B-2 S-3 broke Miller's service and Dave Hirose came back to serve six points to cut the gap to 14-6. His service was broken but B-2 S-3 quickly got the ball back and Doug Boales served seven straight points to make it 14-13.

Boales lost his serve but again B-2 S-3 quickly got the ball back. And Paulette Coman brought the comeback to an exciting climax by serving three points to lift her team to the victory.

The win left B-2 S-3 as the only unbeaten team left in the Campbell National league. The loss dropped Collosal Combine into a tie with Marriott's and Olympic Imports for second place, all three teams at 2-1.

Ron Oburn, along with Miller, served well in the loss for Collosal.

Paulin, Fritzke led Viking harriers to double-dual win

BOB PAULIN and Ron Fritzke finished one-two to drive West Valley College to a double-dual cross country win over Diablo Valley College and Laney in Golden State Conference activity.

Paulin (Camden) covered the four mile course at Foothill in 20:30 to finish first for the Vikings and Fritzke (Leigh) was second at 20:55. Todd Baker (Westmont) was fourth for WVC at 21.05.

Paulin was second to only San Mateo's Mitch Kingery overall in GGC action on the Foothill course that day. Kingery helped San Mateo to a win clocked at 20.27.

The two wins for West Valley upped the Viking's GGC record to 4-0 on the year. WVC was to meet De Anza and Foothill in a double dual Wednesday, Oct. 20, at Coyote Park at 3 p.m.

Child care-housing plan up for review by city council

TO FUND OR NOT to fund the child care program and a hearing on a new low-income housing development highlights the Monday, Oct. 25 meeting of the Campbell City Council. Sessions start at 8 p.m. in the Council Chamber, 75 N. Central ave.

Continued from an earlier meeting was a decision on the city-sponsored child care program. Last year Campbell earmarked $25,000 to fund the program but criticism has been lodged over the small number of children cared for under the program. At its maximum, this summer, the program operated in cooperation with the County Office of Education funded 15 youngsters.

West Valley Open Doors is seeking approval to establish housing for low-income and senior citizens at 573 W. Latimer ave.

Also up for discussion Monday is an application for an amusement center-arcade permit for the Campbell Billiard Center; a request to operate a limousine service at 136 Kennedy ave. and a report on demolition costs for the old Scout Hall on Grant st.

One slightly beat up training jet for sale

PUBLIC WORKS department staffers were busy looking for a scrap metal dealer to take the Air Force training jet off their hands last week, but prospects weren't good.

Parks and Recreation Commissioners last Wednesday recommended that the plane be removed and directed staff to look into the details.

Earlier reports of safety hazards from sharp metal edges and the high cost of maintenance, prompted exploring removal of the jet-turned play equipment at Campbell Park.

The first approach was to try and interest the Air Force in coming out to pick up their former jet trainer. That wasn't successful, as the military agency declined and, instead, sent detailed instruction on the proper disposal of the plane.

ACCORDING TO Charlene Case, administrative aide; the city contacted three scrap metal dealers last week but two declined the offer and the third said he'd pick up the plane as long as it was a gift. But staffers feel there should be some payment to the city for the scrap metal so more contracts with dealers were to be made this week.

The City Council is expected to get a report on the situation, and staff recommendations, at the Nov. 8 meeting.

TAX BREAK

Legal ways to defer paying tax next April on hundreds, even thousands, of your 1976 income.

(Save $7.50 if you act now.)

Come tax day, thousands of Californians will be shelling out tax dollars they don't have to pay. Washington has even passed laws which spell out these tax breaks.

Why don't more people take advantage of them? Because most folks think the tax deadline is April 15 next year.

Not so. It's a lot closer than that. It's midnight New Year's Eve.

After that date you can't benefit from these '76 tax breaks. But steps you take before then can keep dollars in your pocket. Dollars that are legally yours.

Who qualifies for tax breaks? Are you self-employed? You can shelter up to $7500 of income from Federal taxes and $2500 from State taxes this year alone.

Not covered by a qualified retirement plan? You can shelter up to $1500 year after year from both State and Federal taxes.

Come into Allstate Savings. One of our savings counselors will help you set up an account tailored to your situation. Explain how to defer taxes on the income you deposit in the account. Even how to postpone paying taxes on the interest you earn.

These government-approved accounts are called IRA and Keogh. There is a $7.50 trustee fee to be paid yearly on each plan. Allstate Savings will absorb the 1976 fees on any such plans opened before New Year's.

This service, we think, is a good deal for you. And since we're not samaritans, it could be, quite frankly, a good deal for us.

Because the money we help you save just might wind up in an Allstate Savings account.

No shortcuts on Central ave.

IF YOU'RE USED to taking Central avenue as a shortcut to bypass traffic laden Campbell ave., you'll have to change your route starting this week.

Sidewalk construction along the new Orchard City Drive will require the permanent closing of Central ave. at the new loop street this week, according to Dave Valkenaar, city project engineer.

Motorists bound for the Factory can use First street to reach the parking lots while those bound for E. Central or Railway are advised to use Dillon avenue.

DURING THE NEXT nine days the General contractor, R. J. Zipse Paving company, has scheduled several sub-contractors to work in an all-out effort to complete the project for the October 30 opening.

Traffic island installations this week will require two minor, but difficult, traffic lane changes on Campbell ave. At both ends of the new street construction Campbell ave. traffic will be squeezed into two lanes. This is temporary, Valkenaar says, until Orchard City drive is opened.

And advance warning on the temporary closing of Campbell ave. On Saturday, Oct. 30, from 6 a.m. to 1 p.m. that main thoroughfare will be closed to all traffic while final work on the new one-way traffic systems are completed.

A fire call at fireproofing firm

HAVING A fire reported in a fire station is an unusual happening. Almost as rare was the fire reported last week in a local firm which makes fireproof insulation.

Last Saturday fire fighters responded to a fire alarm at Recyclix corporation, 866 McGlincey lane. Seems a blaze in the untreated wood fiber cellulose had set off the alarm and the sprinkler system.

The blaze was under control when the fire engine arrived but fire fighters poured water on the smouldering pile to make sure the fire was out.

There's nothing wrong with their fireproof process, Manager Frank Lawrence reported Monday. Sparks from machinery set off the untreated material, he explained.

"And before it's treated, cellulose is very flammable."

Damages were minor and were limited to some plant equipment.

From Caruso to Zeld

There's music in the air and a dog at the door

By PAT SAFFORD

THE FIRST MUSICAL selection ever recorded for the phonograph wasn't by Bach or Wagner or even Handel. It was a scratchy rendition of "Mary Has A Little Lamb," produced by inventor Thomas Edison in the late 1800's.

A new store in Campbell has a reproduction of Edison's first machine, along with 200 original phonographs from 50 to 80 years old, 10,000 old cylinder records and an estimated 40,000 old 78's.

The Musical Americana Talking Machine Company, 354 E. Campbell ave., has been open for several months now but "open" isn't quite the word for the owners' abbreviated shop hours. Two hours on Wednesday and Thursday and banker's hours on Saturday is the only time you can walk in off the street to view some of the relics on display.

BUT OWNERS Bob Fulwider and Dale Hoyt aren't hurting for business. In fact, they're probably the largest mail order firm for antique phonographs and reproductions for old machines in the world.

And the Campbell postmark has been on packages sent as far away as Japan, England, France and throughout the continental United States.

"We have over 180 parts available," Fulwider explained last week. "Other stores buy from us too."

Looking inside the quaint Campbell ave. shop, you'd never guess it was closed up last year by the health department. At that time it was a beer bar and the hangout for motorcycle rough riders who left the place in a shambles.

WHERE THE WALLS were once papered with scores of outstanding traffic tickets, a velveteen red and gold wall covering now sets off the plush red and black carpeting. And the false ceiling was removed to reveal an ornate carved ceiling of the building which housed a Pierce Arrow dealership at the turn of the century and later a bank. And all it took for the transformation was hundreds of hours of work and a hefty financial investment.

But the co-owners are now buying the store so they plan to hang onto their investment.

And, according to Fulwider, "investment" is a good word to old phonographs. Their increased value over the past few years has kept pace with the skyrocketing home values.

"Antique phonographs go up about 30 per cent a year," Fulwider declares, "and have for the past five years."

IN FACT, THE Campbell firm makes an unusual guarantee to their customers to buy back any machine purchased there, "anytime" for the original purchase price.

Fulwider is a newcomer to the field of antiques, while Hoyt has been in business for 17 years.

"I started collecting five years ago when I bought an old juke box," Fulwider explains.

Then earlier this year Hoyt and Fulwider bought out a business in Santa Cruz, added their sizeable collections and they were open for business in Campbell.

That is . . . from 7 to 9 p.m. two nights a week and on Saturday.

THE CHECKERED past of the building at 354 E. Campbell ave. isn't apparent in the newly restored interior, complete with a giant fan with wooden blades. The lights are circa 1930 from an old schoolhouse in Placerville and the walls will be decorated with old ad art. All of the antique phonographs in the Campbell store are at least 50 years old and hand cranked. You can get from 2 to 12 records played from one cranking, co-owner Bob Fulwider explained, "depending on the machine and the size and number of the springs."

ONE TREASURE at the talking machine company on Campbell ave. is the first stereo, manufactured in France in 1912. It's pictured above (top of photo) and came with tone arms on two sides. In the foreground are some of the 10,000 cylinder records in stock.

CAMPBELL PARTNERS Dale Hoyt and Bob Fulwider (right) posed in their store last week with their mascot which has brought the business a lot of notoriety. "Nipper," otherwise known as the RCA Victor dog has been dognapped twice by thieves. But the culprits picked on the wrong business. Fulwider, a Campbell patrolman, nabbed both of them and they've both been tried and convicted. And since the latest theft Fulwider has secured Nipper with a heavy chain leash and antique brass padlocks. "We're looking for a real dog to put out front," Fulwider explained last week. "It would have to be a cross between a pit bull and a terrior (to match the mascot). And it would be a real nipper."

Local man's appeal wins a postponement

ONE CAMPBELL man was well prepared when he pleaded his case before the City Council last week. And he may get a compromise for his efforts.

At issue with Loren Schuessler was the city's plans to relocate his driveway and take off the porch of his 63 N. 2nd st. home as part of the north loop street construction.

Schuessler brought along a raft of charts, a three page prepared statement and conducted his own appeal.

"It's not simply a porch," the man argued at one point during his half-hour presentation, "it's an integral part of the house." He also declared he was willing to go to court to plead his case if necessary and that his attorney had assured him he'd prevail in the lawsuit. "He recently fought the (San Jose) airport case to the Supreme Court," Schuessler said of his counselor.

THE LOCAL MAN outlined the city's possible courses of action for his property and put a "damages" price tag on each alternative.

They included the city's proposal, with the porch removal ($6,500 damages), altering the course but leaving him with no driveway ($6,500), allowing him access to the loop street at the corner, which he agreed it would create a serious traffic hazard ($500), allowing a space in the proposed sound wall so he could get out of his driveway ($500), or a legal fight. And this course he says would cost the city an estimated $70,000 in damages and legal fees.

At the end of Schuessler's presentation the council continued his appeal for two weeks to allow him to meet with Public Works Director Joe Elliott and Engineering Manager Frank Lewis to work out a possible compromise.
